12407/63-12-62 PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY

No. 54] DELHI, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1962/AGRAHAYANA 2, 1884

DELHI ADMINISTRATION, DELHI

1962/63-12-62 NOTIFICATION

to announce to all Delhi, the 23rd November 1962

No. F. 9(4)/60-F&CS.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (10 of 1955), read with the Government of India, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, New Delhi Notification No. CSR/2(20)-Tex(A)/58-1, dated the 25th August, 1958 and with the prior sanction of the Central Government, the Administrator of the Union Territory of Delhi is pleased to make the following order:—

1. (a) This order may be called the Delhi Cotton Cloth Dealers Licensing Order, 1962.

(b) It extends to the whole of the Union Territory of Delhi and shall come into force from the 1st of December, 1962.

2. In this order, unless the context otherwise requires:—

(a) "Administrator" means the Administrator of the Union Territory of Delhi.

(b) "Cotton Cloth" means any type of cloth manufactured either wholly from cotton or partly from cotton and partly from any other material and containing not less than ten per cent of cotton by weight but does not include—

(i) ready made clothing other than dhoties and sarees;

(ii) hosiery;

(iii) leather cloth and inferior or imitation leather cloth ordinarily used in book-binding;

(iv) tracing paper;

(v) cloth manufactured partly from cotton and partly from wool and containing forty per cent or less of cotton by weight;

(vi) strips of cotton cloth seventy-two inches or less in length and nine inches or less in width at any point;

- (vii) pieces of cotton cloth measuring forty-three inches or less along any side and six and a quarter square feet or less in area;
- (viii) handloom cloth;
- (ix) cloth manufactured by manufacturers not manufacturing any yarn;
- (x) cloth manufactured elsewhere than in India; and
- (xi) durries and kalins.

(c) "dealer" means a person carrying on, whether as principal or agent and whether separately or in conjunction with any other business, the business of buying or selling, whether wholesale or retail, or of storing for sale, cotton cloth and includes—

- (i) a hawker and (ii) a commission agent,

(d) "Director" means the Director of Food and Civil Supplies, Delhi and includes the Assistant Director of Civil Supplies, Delhi, and

(e) "Form" means a form appended to this Order.

3. Save as hereinafter provided no person or class of persons or dealer shall obtain, attempt to obtain or store for sale for distribution, or sell cotton cloth except under and in accordance with the conditions of a licence granted by the Director in Form II.

4. All applications for licence under this Order shall be made to the Director in Form I and shall be accompanied by a Treasury Challan evidencing the payment of a fee of Rs. 10.

5. The Director may, without prejudice to any other action, cancel or suspend the licence granted under this Order. The suspension or cancellation of a licence shall not entitle the dealer to any compensation or the refund of any fees paid in respect of such licence.

6. The Director may direct any dealer who does not or ceases to hold a licence under this order, to dispose of any stock of cotton cloth, which he may hold for sale, by sale to such person or class of persons and by such date as he may direct; and the dealer shall comply with such directions.

7. The Director or any other officer authorised by the Administrator in writing in this behalf may with a view to secure compliance with this order—

- (a) require any person to give any information in his possession in respect of any business carried on as a dealer by himself or through any other person;
- (b) inspect or cause to be inspected any books or documents or any stock of cotton cloth belonging or under the control of any person and may take such books or documents in his possession; and
- (c) enter and search or authorise any person to enter and search any premises, place or vehicle and seize or authorise any person to seize any article in respect of which the Director or the authorised officer has reason to believe that a contravention of this Order has been committed.

8. The Director may by a special or general direction, require any dealer to dispose of cotton cloth to any person or class of persons in such manner and at such price and by such date as may be indicated therein.

9. The Director may require all or any of the licencees under this order to deposit such security as may be indicated by the Director for the compliance of the provisions of this Order or any instructions issued thereunder and the Director may forfeit the said security in whole or in part, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the licensee, for the contravention of any of the provisions of this order.

10. Every licensee under this order shall submit to the Director a true fortnightly statement in Form III within three days of the expiry of that fortnight.

11. A licence granted under this Order shall, unless sooner cancelled or suspended, be valid for a period of one year from the date of issue and may on application be renewed for another year on payment of a fee of Rs. 10.

12. If a licence granted under this Order is cancelled or suspended, the licensee shall forthwith return the licence to the Director.

13. If a licence granted under this Order is defaced, lost or destroyed, the licensee shall forthwith inform the Director who may on application bearing a Court-fee Stamp of Rs. 2 issues a duplicate licence.

14. The Administrator may exempt any person or class of persons from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Order and may at any time suspend or cancel such exemption.

15. If any person contravenes any of the provisions of this Order, he shall be punishable under section 7 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (10 of 1955).

16. The provisions of this Order are in addition to and not in derogation of any other law for the time being in force relating to the control of cotton cloth.

By Order,

SUNDER LAL,

Assistant Director, Civil Supplies,

Delhi Administration, Delhi.
